J. Parker Read Presents Louise Glaum 'SEX' IN

This is a picture written by the gifted C. Gardner Sullivan and of the abundance of stories which he has sponsored "Sex" may be said to outclass them all in its dramatic elements and the strength of its moral. The author has looked at life and painted it truthfully. He has used the eternal triangle in a new way, bringing out in the telling not only an absorbing drama but a sound moral. Undoubtedly the offering is the best thing that the star has ever had and she rises to the occasion by giving a portrayal marked for its emotional depth.

Another sizzling auto thriller! By the author of Wallace Reid's biggest hits, "The Roaring Road" and "Excuse My Dust."

A romance of love, business and whizzing racers. And of lumbering motor trucks that helped make a speed demon human.

See the hair raising motor race that opened the new Los Angeles Speedway.

See the battle of men with a raging storm to save a sleeping valley from death!

See the breaking of the great Cabrillo dam!

Then see the unforgettable climax, that called for a MAN—and found him on the job!

A picture that fairly bursts with power and excitement!

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Swimming continues to grow in interest at the Y. M. C. A., a larger number of business and professional men enjoying the sport than ever before. A number of these men are taking swimming lessons this season for the first time. A number of enthusiasts are also coming in from the county for the sport. Physical director Sheffield is planning to conduct life saving contests, and to give the Red Cross or Standard awards to the young men's class later in the season.

Secretary Harrison will give the Boys' Scout swimming tests beginning next week.

The boys' band has discontinued practice until the first Wednesday in September. At that time tryouts will be given any new boys who may want to join the band.

The tennis court is more largely attended this season than ever before. The Bourbon county boys at the camps conducted by the State Y. M. C. A. are having a big time this year.

Secretary Harrison is busy working up a delegation to the Christian Workers' Conference at Camp Daniel Boone, August 17-24. Dr. F. A. Agar, the noted church efficiency expert of New York will be one of the main attractions at this conference.

The State Christian Endeavor Camp will also be held at Camp Daniel Boone at the same time, combining programs in part with the Christian Workers' Conference. Mr. D. Y. L. Farley, of Paris, is working up the Christian Endeavor Camp. Reduced railroad rates on the certificate plan are granted by the railroad this year. The Camp will probably be filled to capacity during this camp.

BIRTHS.
